Committee Reports

- Police: Report Attached for June 2021.
- Roads: Monthly report from Mark Hopkins - Supervisor Davis motioned to waive the reading of the road report; accepted by all supervisors.
- Planning: Edgewood Trailer Park . New permits applications were completed and given to Tom Wicks

Unfinished Business

- Klinkel Property- Per Supervisor Davis, Mr. Klinkel will have contractor take down, it may be done in two weeks by his contractor. Needs certificate of insurance from contractor and receipts from the disposal of the demolition from junk yard.
- Township Cleanup Day- Completed with the help of Mark and JP Mascaro workers to get street that were missed. Also Twp rented a dumpster for final cleanup items on Rt 6 & 11 and the house on S. Turnpike Road that were never picked up in . Dumpster was also used for township building cleanup..
- Covid Grant Money Application for Glenburn Township: submitted and accepted.
- Mike Sinkevich - 203 Willow Road Presented his photos last month. Have a letter been sent to the owner of property. We are waiting Mr. Wicks (CEO) to give his explanation . Supervisor Wicks said not necessarily junk.
- UGI Solicitor Hillebrand has return calls to the UGI rep regarding the questions of property (Paper Road) behind the Glenburn Grill. Waiting for his call back.

New Business:

- Mike Sinkevich 203 Willow Road Water coming off road and onto his property. Supervisor Wicks had our engineer Zach Smith do a cost estimate on the area. Went it is possible Supervisor Wicks said we can apply for the Low Volume roads and Soil Conservation through the L C C D with Jerry Stiles.
- Highest Point in Glenburn Township Captain Whites relative gave us a brief history on Captain White who served in the Union Army from August 31, 1861, to May 26, 1865, in the 11th Cavalry, 108 Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, Company K during the US Civil War. Wants to have a plaque made and show the story of history for Glenburn Township. Also, to have the stats of the Captain White Hill verified if it is the Highest Point in Glenburn Township.
- Change Order for American Asphalt - Glenview Road and Old Trail Road. Supervisor Davis made a motion to “accept and approve the Change Order amount for the additional work on Glenview and Old Tail roads” 2nd by Supervisor Wicks. All in Favor Supervisor Davis motioned to adjourn at 7:55 PM and 2nd by Supervisor Jennings 2nd. All in Favor.

Respectfully Submitted
